LAST GAME: SHORT-HANDED SKY FALL TO SPARKS, 84-81

Playing without All-Star point guard Courtney Vandersloot and leading rebounder, Jantel Lavender, the Sky more than held their own Sunday but ultimately were defeated by the Sparks, 84-81.

Chelsea Gray scored 26 points and Nneka Ogwumike posted her eleventh double-double of the season, helping Los Angeles extend its home winning streak to eight games. For the Sky, Allie Quigley poured in a team-high 20 points, while Cheyenne Parker contributed 19 points and seven rebounds.

In her first start of season, Astou Ndour matched her season high in points (7), and set new season highs in rebounds (7) and blocks (4).

Gabby Williams tallied a season-high six assists in her second start of the season.

Kahleah Copper finished with a season-high two steals.

Cheyenne Parker set a season high with eight free throws made, and matched her season-high in first-half points (10) and steals (3).

Allie Quigley recorded a season-high three steals.

Stefanie Dolson matched her season-high in steals with three.

ALL-STAR CENTER JANTEL LAVENDER UNDERGOES SURGERY

Jantel Lavender underwent a successful surgery on Wednesday, Aug. 14 to repair a fracture in her left foot, an injury suffered in the third quarter of Chicago’s game at Las Vegas on Aug. 9.

The procedure was performed by Dr. Kelly Hynes at the University of Chicago Medicine in Chicago. Expected recovery time is eight to nine weeks.

Sky General Manager and Head Coach James Wade on Lavender injury:
“Jantel’s leadership and spirit will stay with us as she gets through this injury and as we get through it as a team. The responsibility Jantel takes and her on-the-floor leadership – it’s a big blow to us. We are sad, but it gives her teammates the opportunity to step up in her absence. We will get through it.”

Lavender on recovery (via Instagram @jantellav):
“Successful surgery! Some things are so unfortunate but I’m a true believer in everything happens for a reason. And the reason that reason isn’t so clear to me at the moment is because I was so happy. So so happy!!! I finally felt like Jantel again playing basketball, with a team of women I feel like I’ve known for my entire life. The support I’ve gotten has been unwavering and I’m forever grateful to everyone that has reached out to me! Thank you! In the five days I have been unable to play basketball, I know for a FACT that what’s coming next for me will be nothing short of AMAZING, on and off the court! God’s timing is the best timing! #nothingcantakemysmile #hadthenervetonotletmeeat #wokeupwonderingwherethefoodat #comebackstronger”
