CONGRATULATIONS

If you are reading this, it means that you have made the wise decision to attend and cover a Las Vegas Aces Basketball Game. Odds are, you a member of one of the most prestigious media outlets in the nation, and a talented print, radio or television personality. You also may have just wandered into the media room, accidentally, and picked this up.

Regardless of how these Game Notes came into your possession, welcome to the Las Vegas Aces’ sophomore WNBA season.

These Game Notes are designed to simplify your coverage of the Aces, but in a society that now likes to communicate in 140 280 characters or less, even a modest-sized set of Game Notes like this one can be intimidating.

Over the next two pages, we will walk you through the complexities of this document to further enhance your ability to cover Las Vegas’ newest professional sports team.

Statistics
Let’s take these items in reverse order. If all you need are our season statistics, just flip to the end of these notes. Both team’s stats are always located on the second to last page.

At home games, there is also a separate statistical packet with more detailed information about both teams, probably located right next to the these game notes in the Media Work Room.

The back page is the Media Cheat Sheet roster, complete with head shots to help you quickly identify our players.

What about box scores? Some folks like to see the box score from the previous game in Game Notes, while some folks like to peruse all of that season’s box scores. Some like to see the box scores from previous meetings between the two teams playing today. Given all these possibilities, we have decided not to include any box scores in an effort to rid the planet of unnecessary paper waste.

Box Scores are located on-line, and the Aces Media Relations staff has a binder of this season’s box scores available should you wish to peruse them.
Individual Player Profiles
Each player on the roster has at least a page profile in these pages.

Included in these are ...
- Notes from the 2019 season
- Notes from previous seasons
- Streaks that paint a statistical picture of the player’s most recent performance.
- Upcoming Milestones on which the player is closing in
- Single-season and career highs.

Additional information is available on each player’s online biography, but these should give you what you need to cover the game.

Season Notes
This area is divided into three primary sections.

As the season progresses, the first notes will be super specific to this year’s team and players, and should tell the story of the season, essentially answering the questions, “Why do the Aces have the record they have?”

The second section contains interesting milestones or tidbits about this year’s team or individuals.

The third section includes information from recent seasons that might still have relevance to this year’s team.

Today’s Opponent
This page lets you know how the Aces have performed historically as a team, and as individual players, against today’s opponent.

Additional Information
Also included in these notes are an Aces’ roster, and Pronunciation Guide (page 4).

Frequently Asked Question
“I have found several typos in this document. Would you like to know about them?”

Yes, we would, but you should know that there are many people in the world who are not happy unless they find fault in the work of others. In an effort to boost their self-confidence, we have intentionally sprinkled several typos in this document to assist them, so we may already be aware of the typos of which you speak.

Epilogue
If you have any additional questions, please don’t hesitate to reach out to Director of Media Relations John Maxwell at (951) 203-3208 or jmaxwell@lasvegasaces.com.

Thanks again for your interest in covering the Las Vegas Aces.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS
WNBA General Managers picked the Las Vegas Aces to win the 2019 WNBA Championship in the league’s annual survey. Phoenix was the second most popular pick to win the title, followed by the Sparks and Mystics in a tie for third, and Atlanta in fifth.

LEAP FROG
If the Aces were to win the WNBA Championship this season, they would become the sixth team to do so after failing to make the playoffs the previous season. The first was the Bill Laimbeer-helmed, worst-to-first Detroit Shock in 2003.

ARE YOU EXPERIENCED?
Of the 11 WNBA veterans on the Aces roster, six have postseason experience, but only three have played in more than three playoffs games—Tamera Young, Sugar Rodgers and Carolyn Swords. Young has played more minutes in the postseason than the rest of her teammates combined.

Playoffs
Player                     | Games | Minutes |

HIGH ROLLERS
Last season, the Aces had the youngest roster in the WNBA averaging 24 years, 229 days at the start of the season.

This season, they are the sixth youngest (26 years, 185 days), thanks in part to the veterans that make up the team’s “High Rollers” second unit.

Las Vegas’ starting lineup consists of Jackie Young (21), A’ja Wilson (22), Kelsey Plum (24), Kayla McBride (26), and Liz Cambage (27).

The High Rollers consist of JiSu Park (20—the 2nd youngest player in the W), Dearica Hamby (25), Sugar Rodgers (29), Sydney Colson (29), Carolyn Swords (29) and Tamera Young (32).

GETTING DEFENSIVE
The Aces lead the WNBA in defensive field goal percentage (.374), adjusted defensive field goal percentage (.385), defensive rebound percentage (79.7%) and Defensive Efficiency (points allowed per 100 possessions, 90.9).

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES
By nearly every statistical measure, the Aces defense has done a complete 180 from a year ago.

THREE BALL, CORNER POCKET
Las Vegas is making 36.5 percent of its threes this season, which is third in the league.

DOUBLE TROUBLE
When the Aces outbounds and outshoot an opponent over the last two seasons they are 15-1, including 3-0 this year.
BENCH PRESS
The Aces bench scored 38 points at Phoenix on May 31, and 40 vs. Connecticut on June 2. The last time Las Vegas’ reserves scored more than 40 points in a game was on June 3, 2018 in a loss at Chicago when they accounted for 42.

The High Rollers are outscoring the opposition bench 174-102 on the year.

THERE’S NO PLACE LIKE HOME
The Aces upended the New York Liberty, 100-65, on June 14. That 35-point margin of victory was the highest ever for the franchise in a home game, besting the 31-point win over Minnesota on July 5, 2002 (87-56).

It was also the second largest margin of victory for the team, behind the Silver Stars 42-point win at Phoenix on August 19, 2012 (89-47).

CHASING DOGMA
Las Vegas is holding opposing defenses to just 37.4 percent shooting from the field. Should they maintain that percentage, it would be the lowest in WNBA history.

TURN AND COUGH
The Aces have coughed up double-digit leads in two of their last three losses—12 points at Phoenix on May 31, 10 points vs Connecticut on June 2, as well as a 7 point lead at NY on June 9.

BE ... AGGRESSIVE. B. E. AGGRESSIVE
Las Vegas pounded the ball inside last season, reaping the rewards by averaging a 23.6 free throw attempts per game, which was the second highest average in the league. This season the team is averaging 22.2 free throws per game which ranks 1st in the league.

THREE IS A CROWD
Las Vegas averaged 10.9 three-point field goal attempts per game last season, which were the fewest attempts in the league by nearly 5 three-pointers. This season the team is averaging 14.2, which is still 12th in the league.

In addition, the Aces have made more three pointers than their opponents in a game just four times since moving to Las Vegas. They are 3-1 in those games.

SHOOTING IS THE NAME OF THE GAME
When the Aces shoot equal or better from the field than the opposition over the last two years, they are 16-4. When they are outshot, they are 1-18.

BID EUCHRE
When the Aces allow an opponent to shoot 50.0 percent or better from the field, they are 0-9 since making the move to Las Vegas, including 0-1 this season.

AIN’T IT GRAND
A’ja Wilson is on pace to reach 1000 career points in her 51st game as a pro. That would make her the 3rd fastest player to reach that mark.

KEEPING YOUR HEAD ABOVE WATER
A win over Minnesota Sunday would improve the Aces’ record to 4-3.

The last time Las Vegas (nee San Antonio) was above the .500 mark seven or more games into the season was July 11, 2014 when the team was 11-10. The last time the Aces were two or more games over .500 was July 9, 2014 when they were 11-9.
THREE’S COMPANY
Until Diana Taurasi returns to the Mercury lineup, Kayla McBride leads all “active” players in consecutive games with at least one made three-pointer.

DOUBLE SIXES
The Las Vegas Aces had six players score in double figures at Atlanta on June 6, which tied the team record for most double-digit scorers in the same game. The WNBA record is seven players in double figures, accomplished nine times by six different teams, most recently by the Atlanta Dream against the Indiana Fever on July 13, 2018.

THE ROOK (2.0)
Jackie Young ranks 5th in the WNBA among rookies in scoring (6.8), fourth in rebounding (4.2), second in assists (3.8), 5th in field goal percentage (40.0%), and 4th in minutes per game (21.2).

BO DEREK
On July 7, 2018 vs. Connecticut, Kelsey Plum handed out 10 assists without committing a turnover. The league record for most assists without committing a turnover is 14 by Jen Rizzotti, set on June 21, 2012 against New York when she was with the Cleveland Rockers.

The franchise record is 12 set by Danielle Robinson with San Antonio against Minnesota on June 1, 2014.

DOUBLE DIGIT DEBUTS
A’ja Wilson started her WNBA career scoring in double figures in each of her first 37 games, but had that streak snapped at New York on June 9.

It was the second longest such streak to start a career in WNBA history, behind former Houston Comets legend Cynthia Cooper, who began her career with 92 straight double-digit scoring efforts.

OLE’
San Antonio wasn’t known for its defensive prowess over their last eight years either, finishing in the bottom third of the league in defensive efficiency in each of their last six seasons, and seven of their last eight. This year the Ace’s have the second best Defensive Efficiency Rating in the W.
